NHS OpenAthens

NHS OpenAthens is the key to electronic knowledge resources provided by the NHS for work, study and research. Registering for NHS OpenAthens gives you access to reliable information from any computer.

How do I register for NHS OpenAthens?

- Log on to a computer, ideally linked to the NHS network, and go to: https://openathens.nice.org.uk/
- Follow the instructions to register, which takes about five minutes
- Check the inbox of the email address you used to register for the NHS OpenAthens account
- Click on the activation code which has been emailed to you - you can then choose your password

For instant registration please register using an NHS networked computer and/or NHS email address.

If you do not use an NHS computer or an NHS email address it may take up to 15 working days for your application to be processed. Applications made from a non-nhs networked computer using a personal email address will not be processed.

What resources can I access?

- Hundreds of e-books
- Thousands of e-journals
- British National Formulary
- Medline, EMBASE, CINAHL and other databases

And lots more, all available at work or at home.

To see a full list, go to: https://openathens.nice.org.uk/Hub/Resources
Enter your username and password. Click on the “resources” tab to see a list of NHS resources accessible to you.
